

PHOTO DOCUMENTATION: TURN-OVER OF BOOKS FROM MOVE ON PHILIPPINES
January 2008

Turn-over of books to MINSIED Foundation, Cotabato City
January 26, 2008

Mr. Alladin B. Palanggalan (left), MINSIED Chief Executive Officer, and Other MINSIED Staff await the arrival of MOP donations at MINSIED Foundation office in Cotabato City.

Mr. Palanggalan (right), assists his other staff in unloading the five boxes of books in MinLand vehicle.

Opening of the boxes of books

Ms. Arphael Lauban, Project Staff of MINSIED, carefully checks the books donated by MOP.

Mr. Alladin B. Palanggalan and other MINSIED staff happily arrange and sort the books. Mathematics, science, encyclopedias, and dictionaries are among the reference materials donated to MINSIED Foundation.

Mr. Alih S. Bato (right), MinLand Staff, hands over the books from Move On Philippines to Mr. Alladin B. Palanggalan at MINSIED office.

PHOTO DOCUMENTATION: TURN-OVER OF BOOKS FROM MOVE ON PHILIPPINES
January 2008

Turn-over of books to MINSIED Foundation, Cotabato City
January 26, 2008

Ms Arphael Lauban seriously scans the books.

Mr. Alladin B. Palanggalan, MINSIED Chief Executive Officer, says, "time is gold" after receiving the token from Move On Philippines. Other MINSIED Staff looks on.

Signing of transmittal letter of Move On Philippines

Ms. Arphael Lauban continues to check and scan the contents of the boxes.

Some of the newly acquired books will go to MINSIED Library and the other books will go to MINSIED partner communities.

PHOTO DOCUMENTATION: TURN-OVER OF BOOKS FROM MOVE ON PHILIPPINES
January 2008

Turn-over of School Supplies to Datu Ambel Memorial High School,
Brgy. Kilada, Matalam, Cotabato
January 29, 2008

Ceremonial turnover of the school supplies from Move On Philippines to Datu Ambel Memorial High School in Barangay Kilada, Matalam Cotabato.

School head Mr. Nhor P. Laguia (standing right) and other teachers, including the Arabic teacher (center), instruct the students to form their line per year level.

The school teachers equally distributed the school supplies to the students. All students expressed their many thanks to the MOP and MinLand for the donations.

Following the instruction of their teachers, the first year high school students formed their line immediately. They are the one who receives first the MOP donation.

PHOTO DOCUMENTATION: TURN-OVER OF BOOKS FROM MOVE ON PHILIPPINES
January 2008

Turn-over of School Supplies to Datu Ambel Memorial High School,
Brgy. Kilada, Matalam, Cotabato
January 29, 2008

Students share impressions with each other of what they received, some of them encourage to exchange the item they received to others.

2nd year student receives the school supplies from Move On Philippines, Inc. He expressed his thanks to MOP for the donations.

Female student receives happily the donated school supplies from Move On Philippines International, Inc.

Third year students and its adviser pose for the souvenir picture after receiving school supplies from Move On Philippines International, Inc. Mr. Nhor P. Laguia, School Head (standing right) said that MOP and MinLand is part of the growth of the Datu Ambel High School. He added that no amount of money can equal the untiring support of MOP and the inspiration it gives to students.

PHOTO DOCUMENTATION: TURN-OVER OF BOOKS FROM MOVE ON PHILIPPINES
January 2008

Turn-over of Educational Materials from MOP to Alegria Day Care Center at MinLand Office, Kidapawan City
February 13, 2008

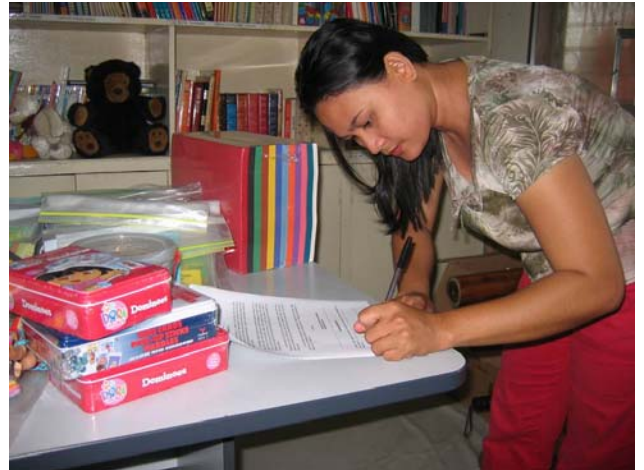

Ms. Ofelia D. Tagle-Tutul (right), MinLand Staff, hands over the educational materials to Ms. Girley P. Manlapig, Pre-School Teacher of Alegria Day Care Center.

Ms. Manlapig (left) freely checks the educational materials. She said that the donations would be a big help to the education of Day Care pupils.

Continue checking of the educational materials.

Signing of transmittal letter